

SLE Profile of Hayley Twidale

September 2016

Hayley Twidale is a Year 6 class teacher, also English co-ordinator, Maximising Learning Potential Co-ordinator and Assistant Head Teacher at Goxhill Primary School, where she has been working/teaching for the past five years. Hayley has specialist knowledge in English and teaching and learning which she has developed throughout her time at Goxhill Primary School. Hayley has set up a system at her own school in which the potential of every single child throughout the whole school is monitored (personal potential as well as academic).

Hayley brings with, to her role as a Specialist Leader of Education with Leading Learning Forward TSA and Humber Teaching School, her experience from consultancy work undertaken on behalf of TT Education, Hayley travels around the UK delivering courses which focus on teaching the new curriculum (predominantly writing and grammar) through game playing and interactive teaching approaches.

Hayley also has responsibilities for Teaching and Learning and the co-ordination of English within her SMT role. Hayley has been a part of the local Authority moderation team for the past two years and has supported a number of local teachers and schools within her Lead teacher role.

Please contact Tracy Millard at St Hugh's Teaching School by telephone on 01724 842960 or by email LLF.TSA@northlincs.gov.uk, in the first instance, to request SLE support from Hayley Twidale.

Image to follow

Hayley Twidale